

We helped
the Brewers

swing for
the fences!

There's an unmistakable excitement in Milwaukee as the Brewers forge a new chapter in Milwaukee's rich baseball tradition. Matching bats with their new National League foes, the Brewers have fans headed to the ballpark anticipating an exciting brand of baseball that has become the team's trademark. The excitement will culminate in less than two years with the opening of Miller Park, where fans will enjoy top-level baseball in the country's most comfortable, state-of-the-art stadium.

(We are privileged to assist the Brewers in a wide range of matters including labor, taxation, finance, construction, litigation, real estate and intellectual property)
